“ Back in 1995 when I had just had a baby boy, I have an doctor's appt. for an.allergist.. So I thought about asking her to babysit while I went,, I didn't want to.take my 6 week old...I hurried back...She said she had fallen in love,, and yes, that love would grow to become a mutual bond between her, Ike, and boo. He named them Mimi and Dada. I recall asking her what she thought 'Zack' would call Dada when he got older,, she looked at me funny, and said, 'Dada', and she was right, it stayed.

I don't think I would have made it without her help, she was an angel sent to me and I will forever be full of gratitude. I loved her dearly,,Mimi was not one to spend money on herself,, but others; I would consider her to have been one full of grace and wisdom, always standing strong under pressure. She didn't have a regular church that, but was one of the best Christians I knew. Always will LOVE and miss her.

“ Mimi was such a wonderful caretaker, mother, & grandmother. She took care of so many people and made everyone feel like family. She had a beautiful gentle soul. I'm going to miss her terribly just like so many others.
